

THOMAS YEO is an experienced workforce development specialist with more than 15 years of experience in the continuing education and training (CET) sector. His expertise is in national qualifications framework and quality assurance system development and implementation; competency-based human resources development and courses development; education and training business consultancy; and productivity improvements for Small and Medium Enterprises. He consults with the ASEAN governments helping them in Technical & Vocational Education Training (TVET) system development and referencing to the ASEAN Qualifications Referencing Framework (AQRF). He also speaks at World Bank and United Nations organised-conferences and workshops on TVET.

Thomas is currently the Principal TVET and HRD Consultant at CET Global Pte Ltd. He is also an adjunct Adult Educator with the Institute for Adult Learning; Consultant with Singapore Polytechnic International; and Associate Director CET Office, SHRM College.