

Thailand Professional Qualification Institute (Public Organization)'s Declaration of Intent On Administration with Integrity and Resistance to Corruption in All Its Forms

Thailand Professional Qualification Institute (TPQI) (Public Organization) has emphasized prevention and suppression of corruption and misconduct in the public sector which is an important national policy. In order to express our commitment to honest management and to encourage TPQI staff to uphold strictly, TPQI hereby declares our intention of administration with integrity and resistance to all forms of corruption. We also promise to achieve and fulfill its missions with honesty, integrity, and transparency while raising staff's awareness and participation in preventing and resisting corruption in the following aspects:

- 1. Efficient performance: Strictly complying with performance standards and designated procedures and time frame while enhancing efficiency by using information technology and improving resource utilization with equity and efficiency
- 2. Effective performance: Performing duties to fulfill TPQI's founding objectives, responding to the needs of people and stakeholders, managing risks, focusing on result-based performance, as well as pursuing continuous improvement
- 3. Solution to corruption problems: Counteracting corruption together, reviewing and updating relevant anti-corruption policies, monitoring, inspecting, and using inspection results to improve
- 4. Budget disbursement: Encouraging staff to participate in budgeting following the principle of transparent, accountable, and participatory governance while implementing result-based budgeting and promoting openness
- 5. Exercise of authority: Taking into account 4 important principles including legality, good faith, non-discrimination, and proportionality to exercise authority properly
- 6. Use of public resources: Following the supervising and monitoring procedures for TPQI's resources utilization and encouraging continuous implementation
- 7. Information disclosure: Disclosing TPQI's complete basic information efficiently to show transparency in administration and execution while maintaining diverse communication channels and making use of technologies

Please kindly be informed accordingly.

Announced on the 28 February 2022

(Mr. Surapol Ploysook)

TPQI Director General